Tower Climb & Grotesque Buttress Wall

Tower Climb - $10.00 per person
 Saturday every half hour, 10 am - 3:30 pm (except noon)

A guided tour climbing over 300 steps beginning at the crypt level and at over 200 feet above the ground. The tour includes a stop at both sets of bells in the Central Tower with a demonstration of music playing and bell ringing. The Carillon will be demonstrated by Ed Nassor, the Cathedral Carillonier and the Peal Bells will be demonstrated by members of the Washington Ringing Society. Climbers must meet the minimum height 48 inches (4 ft.) to participate.

Grotesque Buttress Walk - $20.00 per person
 Saturday, 11am, 1pm, 2pm, 3pm

A guided tour spanning an outdoor gutter walkway between the two west towers. This tour has very little stair climbing, but does require tourists to maneuver through and navigate some very narrow and low arching passages of the upper buttresses (a head buster for some who are not careful...). Each passage through a buttress arch opens to a fairly generous porch area and offers a unique opportunity to get up close and personal with some of the more whimsical and creative grotesques and gargoyles adorning this part of the Cathedral - including the closet convenient vantage point of the famed Darth Vader grotesque. The views and vistas aren't too bad either.

Tea in the Tower
