

Bas Relief of Kneeling Figure

Location: In the wall behind the perennial garden east of St. Catherine's Pool

The 15th century granite panel depicts a kneeling female figure with hands clasped in front of her chest. It was acquired from the collection of George Grey Barnard and dedicated in the Bishop's Garden on May 22, 1931.

The Junior Gardeners of Philadelphia gave the bas relief in memory of Eleanor Pepper Newbold, their first president.
