

Canon C. Leslie Glenn Plaque

Location: To the right of the Norman Arch entrance to the Bishop's Garden on South Road

The plaque is made of Indiana limestone and was installed when the adjacent Norman Arch was reconstructed in memory of Canon Glenn – who was rector of Christ Church, Cambridge, Massachusetts and later, rector of St. John's Church, Washington, D.C. He was also founder of the Church Society for College Work.

Date: 1978

Inscription:

To The Radiant Spirit Of Charles Leslie Glenn
Canon And Sub Dean
Of The Cathedral
1968 -1976
Who Continually Rejoiced In The Myriad Wonders Of The Father's Love
Strewn In The Garden Of Creation