

Mexican Government Plaque

Location: To the right on the wall just after entering the Norman arch from South Road

This bronze plaque was donated by the Mexican Ambassador to commemorate the planting of a Mexican Hawthorn on “Mexico’s Day” during the Flower Mart Festival May 3, 1974. The Hawthorn no longer exists in the garden.

Date: 1974

Inscription:

Tejocote O Manzanillo
(Crataegus mexicana)
Planted on the Occasion
“Mexico’s Day” In the Flower Mart Festival
May 3, 1974