

LeCompte Garden

South of the Postern Gate, this garden was installed in 2015 in memory of Rowan LeCompte, whose stained-glass artistry fills the cathedral, including 18 clerestory windows and the great Creation rose window on the west front.

The memorial bench is sited to have a view of the clerestory windows and the bloom colors represent colors found in the stained glass.